ABOUT 2ND VIDHI VAARTA CONSTRUCTION ARBITRATION LAW MOOT COURT COMPETITION, 2026

Construction and infrastructure law lies at the intersection of contractual obligations, commercial interests, public projects, and dispute resolution. The 2nd Vidhi Vaarta Construction Arbitration Law Moot Court Competition, 2026 provides law students with a rigorous, practice-oriented platform to engage with contemporary issues in construction law and arbitration through competitive mooting.

The Competition simulates the complexities of commercial construction arbitration, requiring participants to conduct intensive legal research, analyse intricate contractual and factual matrices, formulate cogent legal propositions, and present persuasive submissions before experienced adjudicators. The Proposition addresses issues including additional works without a formal Variation Order, No Dues Certificates and final settlement, accord and satisfaction, economic duress, contractual authority, governmental procurement frameworks, internal financial regulations, quasi-contractual claims, and the constitution and jurisdiction of the Arbitral Tribunal under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

What sets the Vidhi Vaarta Construction Arbitration Law Moot apart is its focus on the practical interplay between construction contracts, commercial realities, and arbitral adjudication. Participants must move beyond the mechanical application of legal principles to engage with the evidentiary, contractual, and procedural dimensions of a complex infrastructure dispute, fostering a practice-ready understanding of contractual interpretation, arbitral strategy, legal reasoning, and advocacy.

MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD, CENTRE FOR LEGAL SIMULATIONS & RESEARCH (CLSR), VIDHI VAARTA

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to the 2nd Vidhi Vaarta Construction Arbitration Law Moot Court Competition, 2026, an initiative founded on the belief that legal education must consistently evolve alongside the realities of contemporary legal practice. Construction Arbitration has emerged as a highly specialised and commercially significant area of dispute resolution, requiring more than conventional legal analysis. It demands an understanding of contractual frameworks, infrastructure projects, commercial negotiations, risk allocation, and evolving arbitration jurisprudence. This multidisciplinary character inspired us to curate a Competition dedicated exclusively to this specialised field.

At the Centre for Legal Simulations & Research (CLSR), we view mooting as far more than an advocacy exercise. It is an intellectual laboratory where legal principles meet commercial realities, research transforms into persuasive advocacy, and participants develop analytical rigour, strategic thinking, and professional judgment. Our endeavour extends beyond organising competitions; we strive to create meaningful academic experiences that bridge the persistent gap between legal education and professional practice.

Accordingly, this Competition encourages participants to approach complex legal issues through the lens of commercial practicality, recognising that effective dispute resolution requires not only a sound understanding of law and precedent, but also an appreciation of the commercial objectives and contractual relationships underlying every dispute.

I encourage all the participants to embrace this Competition as an opportunity to refine their legal reasoning, broaden their perspectives, and develop the qualities that legal professionals must possess. While accolades may mark success, the discipline gained, perspectives developed, and professional relationships forged are what truly shape one's legal journey.

I sincerely appreciate our esteemed collaborators, adjudicators, organising committee, volunteers, and everyone whose dedication has made this vision possible. I look forward to witnessing the legal scholarship, professionalism, and advocacy each participating team brings to this distinguished platform.

I wish all the participants every success and look forward to welcoming you to an intellectually enriching and professionally rewarding experience.

Adv. Madhav Goswami
Head, Centre for Legal Simulations & Research (CLSR)
Vidhi Vaarta, SRTD Group.

MESSAGE FROM THE PARTNERS, SAXENAS AND KUMAR LAW CHAMBERS LLP

It gives me great pleasure to greet each and every team participating in this Moot Court Competition. Legal information can be transformed into practical advocacy, critical thinking, and career success through mooting. It is far more than a simple academic task.

The moot has been carefully crafted to mirror the intricacies of contemporary commercial litigation and arbitration, providing participants with a chance to discuss actual legal issues pertaining to competing legal rights, contractual disputes, evidentiary principles, and judicial interpretation. The objectives of this competition are to promote compelling advocacy, ethical responsibility, in-depth legal knowledge, and critical thinking. I urge each participant to approach the topics with objectivity, self-assurance, and integrity, keeping in mind that genuine advocacy is about using strong legal reasoning to advance justice. I hope everyone has a great time and succeeds in the Competition.

I wish each and every participant the utmost best. I'm hoping that your commitment, perseverance, and drive for excellence will make this competition a truly fulfilling learning experience. I'm eager to see how your professionalism, legal expertise, and advocacy skills will influence the future of our legal fraternity.

I wish you luck!

MESSAGE FROM THE PARTNERS, SAXENAS AND KUMAR LAW CHAMBERS LLP

It is both an honour and a privilege to extend my warm greetings to all the participants, faculty members, organisers, and distinguished guests associated with this Moot Court Competition.

The legal profession demands far more than an understanding of statutes and precedents. It requires intellectual curiosity, disciplined reasoning, ethical conviction, and the ability to advocate with clarity and purpose. Moot court competitions serve as an exceptional platform where these qualities are nurtured, allowing aspiring legal professionals to experience the practical dimensions of advocacy long before they enter a courtroom.

Every moot proposition presents more than a legal dispute - it presents an opportunity to question, analyse, persuade, and grow. The true measure of success in a competition such as this does not lie merely in securing a favourable verdict, but in demonstrating respect for the law, appreciation for diverse perspectives, and an unwavering commitment to excellence in legal reasoning.

As future members of the Bar and Bench, you carry the responsibility of preserving the rule of law and strengthening the institutions of justice. I encourage each one of you to participate with confidence, integrity, and an open mind. Embrace every challenge, value every argument, and view every round as an opportunity to refine your skills and broaden your understanding of the law.

I commend the organisers for providing a meaningful platform that inspires academic excellence and practical legal training. Such initiatives play a significant role in preparing the next generation of advocates and legal professionals.

I extend my heartfelt best wishes to all the participants. May this competition ignite your passion for advocacy, deepen your pursuit of justice, and become a memorable milestone in your legal journey.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Dr. Abhinav Saxena

MESSAGE FROM THE PARTNERS, SAXENAS AND KUMAR LAW CHAMBERS LLP

It is a privilege to be associated with this Moot Court Competition and to witness the enthusiasm, diligence, and legal acumen of the next generation of advocates

The moot proposition presents a challenging blend of contemporary issues in arbitration, commercial contracts, public procurement, and corporate governance, demanding not only a sound understanding of the law but also analytical reasoning, persuasive advocacy, and strategic thinking. I encourage every participant to look beyond the bare provisions of law and engage with the underlying legal principles, judicial precedents, and policy considerations that shape commercial dispute resolution.

A moot court is much more than a competition, it is an opportunity to cultivate the discipline, ethics, confidence, and professionalism that define an accomplished legal practitioner. Every memorial drafted, every argument advanced, and every rebuttal delivered contributes to your journey towards excellence in the legal profession.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the esteemed leadership, organising committee, and volunteers whose dedication has made this academic endeavour possible. Your commitment to nurturing advocacy skills and promoting experiential legal education deserves the highest commendation.

I wish all participating teams the very best. May this competition inspire rigorous legal research, respectful advocacy, and a spirit of healthy competition. Remember, true success lies not merely in winning, but in learning, growing, and upholding the highest traditions of the legal profession.
